Fustini's Community Meals Donation Results are In

TRAVERSE CITY, MICH., AUGUST 17, 2017 – Fustini's Oils and Vinegars in Traverse City has donated 1,077 meals through Food Rescue of Northern Michigan as a result of a commitment to donate one meal for every bottle of their new Traverse City Cherry balsamic vinegar sold.

The program ran for the month of July and raised enough to feed 1,077 in the community who may have otherwise gone without eating a nutritious meal.

“The support we received to provide meals for Food Rescue to distribute was phenomenal,” says Fustini's Traverse City Store Manager Liz Lancashire. “It's wonderful to see how willing our community is to work together in helping those less fortunate.”

Fustini's Traverse City Cherry balsamic vinegar is made with locally-grown tart cherries. It complements a variety of foods, including ice cream, pork and an assortment of vegetables. It's also delicious combined with sparkling water or vodka for a fruity summertime drink.

Fustini's, an olive oil and balsamic vinegar tasting room, opened its doors in Traverse City, MI in 2007. The store quickly grew, adding four additional locations, including Ann Arbor, Boyne City, Holland and Petoskey within the next few years. Fustini's has also expanded their products and services to include pantry items and a School of Cooking.
