Fustini's OILS & VINEGARS Celebrates One Delicious Decade in Holland - Donates $1 Per Bottle to Kids' Food Basket

Starting March 1st Running Through May 31st

(Traverse City, MI) – Fustini's Oils & Vinegars is giving back to the community that has given them so much over the past 10 years in Holland. In celebration of one delicious decade, Fustini's is donating $1 for every bottle purchased this spring beginning March 1st.

Kids' Food Basket is a 501(c) (3) nonprofit organization dedicated to nourishing kids to reach their full potential. Throughout West Michigan, Kids' Food Basket feeds nearly 9,000 kids per day through the Sack Supper program. Hundreds of community members volunteers daily to ensure kids suffering from food insecurity get a fresh, ready-to-eat, nutritious meal delivered barrier-free. In Ottawa and Allegan Counties alone, Kids' Food Basket delivers 1,100 Sack Suppers to seven schools, but the work is not finished. Right now, more than 11,000 kids do not have consistent access to healthy evening meals.

All Ottawa and Allegan operations reside in the back of Peace Lutheran Church. However, the shelves are at program capacity. In the ongoing fight against childhood hunger, Kids' Food Basket will move into their own building, allowing the organization to serve an additional 600 kids per day. With the support of the community, Kids' Food Basket will make the big move beginning summer 2020.

“We are so pleased to support Kids’ Food Basket of West Michigan this spring with this fundraising project. Our mission is to improve community health through diet and nutrition, and I see so many ways that the Kids’ Food Basket initiatives are perfectly aligned with our mission,” states Fustini’s owner, Jim Milligan.

Fustini’s is committed to partnering with non-profits such as Kids’ Food Basket of West Michigan to help improve community health through diet and nutrition. Fustini’s is immensely grateful for the support that area communities have given them, and want to celebrate their success by giving back.

Fustini’s, an olive oil and balsamic vinegar tasting room, opened its doors first in Traverse City, Michigan, in 2008 and then opened three. The business quickly grew, adding another three locations in Petoskey, Ann Arbor and Holland. Fustini’s has expanded their products and services to include pantry items, cookbooks, and a school of cooking.
