

Taste the World's Freshest Olive Oils and Vinegars Right from Your Home

(Traverse City Michigan, MI) February 2021 – Celebrate the taste of Fresh olive oil right from your home with Fustini's virtual taste testing classes. Interactive classes invite guests to discover new olive oils right from their home. The class fee is per household, meaning guests can taste alongside someone they are comfortable being around, or plan to meet their friends virtually through the class.

The Virtual class teaches you how to taste and smell the unique differences between olive oils from different regions across the world. Interactive, small-group teaching ensures guests will get the most out of their time. While Fustini's virtual classes are about tasting and learning, they are also as much about having a glass of wine and having fun with friends and family.

The Fustini's tasting classes are designed to be dynamic and evolving, so there will always be something different to discover. And for groups of eight or more, be sure to ask about how to customize classes for special interests.

About Fustini's Oil and Vinegars

Fustini's, a retail olive oil and balsamic vinegar tasting room business, opened its doors in Traverse City, Michigan in 2008. The business quickly grew, adding three additional Michigan locations in Petoskey, Holland and Ann Arbor. Fustini's has expanded their products and services to include cookbooks, pantry items and a School of Cooking. Additionally, Fustini's is committed to improving community health through diet and nutrition with recent fundraising programs to support the work of various non-profits throughout Michigan.
